AAI GLOBAL leads a $4.5 MM PIPE into Hellenic Solutions Corporation (OTCBB: AEGZF)

HOUSTON, April 22, 2010. Access America Investments (AAI) is pleased to announce the closing of a PIPE transaction for Hellenic Solutions Corporation in the amount of $4.5MM. Hellenic Solutions Corporation, a leading advisory, engineering and construction firm specializing in the design, construction and equipping of commercial, agricultural and industrial facilities in Greece.

Christopher Efid, President of AAI Global Fund, expressed "we feel that despite the current economic issues in Greece, the value added agricultural sector where Hellenic is the dominant player will be one of the key paths forward to tremendous growth. Management has identified a pipeline of exciting projects to capitalize on and we believe in the expertise and strength of this management team to execute on the current market opportunities."

Hellenic Solutions has unique positioning in the expanding and prolific agriculture market as the only company approved by the Greek Ministry of Agriculture to design and build agricultural facilities in Greece. In addition to full support of the European Union's 6.3 billion euro stimulus package for the agriculture industry, each project submitted by Hellenic and approved by the Minister of Agriculture receives 50% of the aggregate project cost further supporting Hellenic's business model to capitalize on their robust project pipeline.

Stavros Mesazos, Chief Operating Officer and Executive Chairman of the Company commented, "We are very pleased to become a US publicly listed company. I am confident that we have chosen the right financial partner in Access America to help us build a successful public corporation as we continue growing a strong, profitable business in Greece".
